THE POLYPORE

AN EXHIBITION PIECE BY COX LONDON

The Polypore is a large lighting sculpture created by Cox London, especially for Collect 2019 (Feb 28th-March 3rd). Inspired by the morphological fruiting bodies (conks) of bracket fungi, thousands of hand pulled glass leaves are woven onto the hand forged frame work. The four organic shaped tiers are illuminated from within.

Dimensions: 1250 mm diameter x 1000 mm high excluding chain or canopy.
Bronzed iron chain can be supplied and appropriate ceiling canopy tailored to suit any scenario.
